“Annie Oakley” Will Visit Greenville

The real Annie Oakley died in 1926, but this interesting historical character is portrayed by Barbara Kay, a reenactor we always enjoy.

Annie was quite an unusual woman in her day. Her performances as a sharpshooter and exhibition shooter are legendary. She did shows before royalty and heads of state.

Learn more about this fascinating woman on Friday, January 29, in the Bradford Community Building. Before the program, we will enjoy a potluck lunch with drinks and table service provided at 11:30 a.m. We are not using a caterer this time due to January’s questionable weather. This event could easily be rescheduled in the event of a bad storm. Cost is only $5 per person. Register by January 22.

The Price is Right Live

Don’t miss the fun when the Travel Club heads to The Price is Right on February 25. Ticket totals need to be finalized soon, so if you haven’t signed up yet, don’t delay. We need an exact ticket count by January 20 in order to finalize our total. Once that is done, no late tickets will be available.

The program has audience participation, and you can sign up if you are willing to be a contestant. If you just want to watch, that is fine too. It will include the games you see on TV every day such as Plinko and the Big Wheel. Who knows? A Bradford customer could come home with a really nice prize.

For advance registration for the contestant pool, contact boxoffice@TheEPC.org. An opportunity should also be available to register that night.

Before the show, we will enjoy an early dinner at Niemerg’s Steakhouse where you will have a salad bar, choice of entrée, drink and a piece of pie. They do not require a pre-order, so you may select your entrée that night.

Register now to assure your ticket. Remember, the final deadline is January 20. It will be a unique and fun evening. $77 per person.

Panama Canal document meeting is Tuesday, Jan. 26 at 2 p.m. in the Bradford Community Building.

The Courthouse Steps on March 20

In thinking out of the box a bit this year, we are going to see a group called The Courthouse Steps. It’s an election year and this group of singing attorneys who poke fun at national and local events taken from the headlines may make it easier to live through all the media hype! Dedicated to the venerable legal principle of equal opportunity jabs, The Courthouse Steps features paro-odies that will have you rolling on both sides of the aisle. Their material is constantly updated to cover the national and local political scene.

two casseroles, two salads, drink and dessert. Their desserts are extra special.

Here is another unique opportunity. Join the group for a timely and funny show.

Cost is $78 per person. Register by February 20.

We will enjoy dinner at My Just Desserts which always does a good job. There will be a buffet with

Nosh the Day Away

The old saying, "Life is short, eat dessert first," might apply to our culinary tour on April 13. We will start at the Chocolate, Chocolate, Chocolate factory tour on The Hill. We will be split into two groups with tour and shopping times reversed so everyone can do it all.

Next up is DiGregorio's Italian Market. They have a deli as well as many dry good products and baked goods. We will bring a cooler in case anyone makes cold purchases.

Then it's time for lunch at Jilly's Cupcake Bar. They are recognized for the best cupcakes in St. Louis with fabulous flavors. You will have a choice of entrée and then can pick any cupcake in the case for dessert! If you prefer, they will box it for you to take home. Check out menu options on the registration form.

We will conclude with a tour of the Billy Goat Potato Chip factory. The chips come in brown paper bags and are quite delicious. They are made fresh daily by the orders they receive and are delivered the next morning. The company started with just three employees and has grown since then.

This fun day out costs just $53 per person. Invite a friend to come and check out the Bradford Travel Club. Register by March 13.

Fun in Louisville

The Travel Club finished 2015 with a short getaway to Louisville, Kentucky. Among the highlights was the Pam Tillis and Friends Christmas Show. Client Connie Criner had opened for her when she sang with her sisters many years ago at a theater they operated in the Taylorville area. Pam remembered her, and their picture was taken together.

Other highlights included the Victorian Village, Reindeer Games at Churchill Downs, a special hot brown sandwich invented at the Brown Hotel, Lights Under Louisville, and Louisville Slugger Museum and Factory.

Collette Specialist

Judy Schneck has completed the Collette University online training and is now a Collette Specialist.

For many years we have had a Collette Connect designation of which some of you may not be aware. The Bradford Travel Club is naturally limited in how many destinations we can visit in a year. However, through Collette Connect we can send you ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD that Collette has a tour. And, as an added bonus, you will get a 5% rebate after the tour which would not be available to you on your own.

If there is somewhere you really want to go, give Judy a call at 618-567-7392 to start the process. Usually tours have multiple dates available.

Through the years a number of clients have availed themselves of this extra service.

To register for any Travel Club activity, clip registration form, attach check, and return to any Bradford National Bank location. Or, mail to Now and Then Travel LLC, P. O. Box 693, Greenville, IL 62246. Checks should be payable to Now and Then Travel, LLC.
