

The Bradford National Bank Travel Club

June 27, 2017 Movie Day in the Community Building

Enjoy a movie in the Bradford Community Room at 1 pm showing of the Zookeepers Wife. This is a true story of a zookeeper and his wife. The movie tells the account of keepers of the Warsaw Zoo, Antonina and Jan Zabinski who helped save hundreds of people & animals during German invasion in Poland in 1939. Come and enjoy the movie and reconnect with your traveling friends during the summer. We will watch the movie with popcorn and drinks served! Cost is $ 5.00 This will be a fun way for us to connect, during the summer months when its hot outside!

BNB Sponsor of Bond County Bicentennial

Bradford National Bank is a signature sponsor of the Bond County Bicentennial Celebration, that will be held July 1 & 2, 2017 in downtown Greenville.

Many events are planned for the two-day event including music by Head East, The Ides of March, Brother Jefferson, Swamp-Daddies, Mid America Air Force Band, and more, performing on the Bradford National Bank Main Stage.

Plus, there will be a huge parade represented by all communities in Bond County and a fireworks display sponsored by the Bond County Fourth Fest committee.

August 23, 2017, Arthur & Sullivan, Illinois

Heading to Arthur and Sullivan, Il area for a day. First stop will be Beachy's, an Amish Grocery store, which specializes in bulk items and produce. We will have lunch at Yoder's Kitchen, then on to the Little Theatre on the Square in Sullivan, where we will enjoy a production of Steel Magnolias, a comedy-drama about the bond among a group of Southern Women in north-west Louisiana. Set in Truvey's beauty salon, where all the ladies who are "anybody" come to have their hair done. Steel Magnolias is alternately hilarious and touching and deeply revealing of the inner strength of each of the women as they deal with life and friendship.

Bus pick up in Marine 7:50am, Highland at 8:10am, Greenville at 8:30am Please RSVP by July 1. Cost of tour is $75.00.

September 17-21, 2017, Black Hills & The Badlands

We will check into the lovely K Bar S lodge situated on 31 serene, secluded acres surrounded by the Black Hills National Forest for a four night stay. Highlights are Mt Rushmore, Black Hills, the Badlands, Deadwood, Crazy Horse Memorial, Wall Drug, Black Hills Gold Factory tour, and more. A guided tram tour of the Homestake Gold mine is included. We also will head out for a open-air jeep tour along the wildlife loop in Custer State Park. Hoping to see elk, prong-horns and the noble buffalo. Please call for brochure or to reserve your spot and is nearly sold out. This is a very patriotic tour you won't want to miss!

October 18, 2017, Alton, Illinois

Our tour will include a historical tour of the Alton area. We will walk in Lincoln's footsteps as we explore his early career at Alton's Lincoln & Civil War Legacy Trail. We will visit many of the sights that helped launch Lincoln's political career. Alton's riverfront location on the mighty Mississippi played a vital role in helping slaves make connections to their freedom. Remnants of this period in history still exist throughout the Alton area. Included on the tour are the ruins left behind by the Civil War as it touched this river community in the 1860's. After lunch we will tour local underground Railroad sites that were part of the system, including Rocky Fork Church, Enos Apartments, and more.

Lunch will be at My Just Desserts. Bus pick-up: Greenville, 7:30am, Highland, 7:50am, Marine, 8:10am. Cost of tour $75.00.

December 4, 2017 Tree-Mendous St. Louis Holly-day Trip

Come join us for this delightful Christmas tour. A full afternoon of Christmas merriment is planned for you including sights, shopping, dinner, and Christmas lights. Make sure you don't miss this tour. Please eat your lunch early or late breakfast before this tour because this one only includes dinner, at 5:30 p.m.

Our first stop will be the magnificent Romanesque Cupples House on St. Louis University campus. Completed in 1890 at cost of $500,000, this Victorian Mansion would cost about $20 million in today's dollars. Lavishly furnished and decorated, Cupples House has been featured in many documentary films and TV shows. We will also visit Walter Knoll's Wholesale on LaSalle to admire fresh cut flowers and watch floral designers creating gorgeous holiday pieces. You may purchase holiday plants and decorations at wholesale prices. There is an opportunity to enjoy holiday shopping along a two-block strip of old Route 66 in Maplewood. Visit Penzy's Spices, Vom Fass Vinegars and Oils, Kakao Chocolates, Great Harvest Bread, and more.

We will have a delicious dinner of chicken spiedini, house salad, side of pasta, bread and beverage at the always popular Zia's on the Hill. A tour of the holiday lights and decorations along Candy Cane Lane, Angel Avenue, and other neighborhoods in South St. Louis is sure to delight. We will leave the Catholic Church parking lot in Greenville at 11:30am, pick-up in Highland at 11:50am and Marine at 12:10pm.

Please RSVP with your deposit by November 1, 2017. Cost of this tour is $ 70.00.
